

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INCREASE MATHER'S DIARY.

AT a meeting of the MASSACHUSETTS HISTORICAL SOCIETY, held in Boston on Thursday, December 14, 1899, Dr. SAMUEL A. GREEN made the following remarks :—

More than forty years ago, on March 11, 1858, a valuable gift was made to the library of the Historical Society by Miss Elizabeth Belknap, the daughter and sole surviving child of the Rev. Jeremy Belknap, D.D. It consisted of all the books, pamphlets, and manuscripts relating to American history that had belonged to her father, who may be considered as the founder of this Society. In the collection was a manuscript diary kept by Increase Mather during the years 1675 and 1676, which begins with the new year ("1<sup>m</sup>. 25<sup>d</sup>. 1675"), and goes to December 7 ("10<sup>m</sup>. 7"), 1676. Like many of the ministers of that period, the diarist wrote a hand that was full of abbreviations and contractions; and in this paper it has been thought best not to fill out such gaps for the most part, but to leave the text as originally written when there is no special ambiguity in doing so. As a rule he ended most of his paragraphs either with "etc." or the shortened form "et." ; and he was also in the habit of writing "e" (et) for "and." The syllable "er" is generally indicated by a slanting backward stroke through the preceding letter, and there are also other peculiar characters in the manuscript. The syllable "con" is often represented by an arbitrary sign which cannot be shown by ordinary type, and "th" by the letter "y."

The diary is kept in a small bound book, about three inches by five in size, which originally had clasps attached to the covers. It was made by binding together four folds of paper, containing twenty-four pages each. At the beginning of the book are six unnumbered pages, on four of which is some miscellaneous writing not connected for the most part with the other contents; and these are followed by eighty-six numbered pages, besides two leaves of duplicated pages near the middle of the volume. In many places certain words and passages are underscored in red ink, which was done by Dr. Belknap for his own use and convenience. Similar markings are found elsewhere in other manuscripts of this Library, which were consulted by him, such as the Belknap Papers and John Marshall's Diary. For ready reference the end of each page of the diary is indicated in the printed copy by heavy-faced figures enclosed within brackets; and the numbers of the four duplicated pages are followed by an asterisk [*]. Apparently the little volume served as a kind of pocket notebook, wherein the writer jotted down briefly the items which he wished to save, and later, in an amplified form, entered many of them in a larger diary. See Cotton Mather's "Pantator" (pp. 36-38), for a confirmation of this view. There is internal evidence that some of the minutes were not made on the day of the date, but two or three days later.

The entries contain many pious ejaculations of the writer, and illustrate the working of his mind on every-day subjects. They are of interest as giving the kind of food that was then thought needful for the mental and spiritual growth of the religious man. There was a strong similarity between his life and that of his contemporary, Chief Justice Sewall, and in many respects their experience was the same.

1<sup>m</sup>. 25<sup>d</sup>. 1675. And is it so indeed? Doe I live to write any thing in y<sup>e</sup> year 1675? Who could have thought yt it should have bin so, wn I was so near vnto death above five years agoe? Providence doth now put me vpo<sup>a</sup> Humiliatio<sup>n</sup> extraordinary; & yr is cause for it. 1. pticular e private. 1. For ye sins of ye year past. 2. My old sins. 3. The plagues of Hr<sup>t</sup> yt doe still abide me. 4. of late Times I have found more respect e esteem amongst men, e wth ye Lords servants yn formerly, how should ye consideration of yt mercy hum<sup>b</sup>le me, & break my Hr<sup>t</sup>! 2. As to ye publick state of things. 1. y<sup>e</sup> Lords people in other pts are in a Low estate. deliverance is not yet come. 2. There are designs agt N. E. 3. The countrey is poor. Blessings on wheat. Trade dead, & ye customes in Barbados e Virginia very prjudicial to ye Trade of ys Countrey. 4. The Colledge is still desolate.

Requests to God in Christ. 1. As to y<sup>e</sup> publick. 1. yt deliverance may arise for his people abroad. 2. yt N. E. may yet be owned by Him. 3. yt ys year may be crowned wth his goodness. 4. yt ye Colledge may be revived. 5. yt Boston may be prserved from Fires e from mortal diseases. [1]

As to pticular. 1. yt ye Ld wld be with me ys year also. owning

5) A. M. My Nath. taken ill wth vomiting & gripings. worms et.
Transcribed serm<sup>a</sup>. sic P. M.

6) Sat vp all night wth Nath. who continued ill. Towards morning

<sup>1</sup> This is an allusion to "The Wicked Man's Portion," a sermon preached on a Lecture Day, March 18, 1674, which is of additional interest as being the first known production from the press of John Foster, the pioneer printer of Boston.

God rebated ye Fever e ye pains w<sup>ch</sup> were vpo<sup>n</sup> him. A. M. studyd serm<sup>n</sup>. Nath. continuing ill, much hindred in my studyes.

7) A. M. Interrupted in studyes by Nats. illness. sic P. M. Little doe children think, wt affection is in ye Heart of a Father. Let ye L<sup>d</sup> doe wth me e mine wt seemeth him good. I desire to Trust in his power e mercy. [4]

8) Nath. something better. A. M. studyd serm. After Lect. wth elders et. This day Nath. somewt revived.

9) In ye night my Samuel was taken very ill, e in a fever ys morning. & Nath. seemingly iller today yn yesterday. There hath bin much Health in my Family for a long time ; & God has spared ye lives of all my children, but I have not bin thankfull & humble as I should have bin, & therefore God is righteous in afflicting me. I have noth. to say but to ly down abased bef him, & let him doe wth me & mine as seemeth him good. onely I can not but Trust in him yt Hee will be gracious, for his owne Names sake. In prayr not altogether wthout Hope. could doe little at my study bec. of childrens sickness.

10) Sam mended (after I had wept e prayd for his life) vpo<sup>n</sup> vsing sallad oyle e a clyster. This day I Fasted e prayd in my study, begg<sup>g</sup>ing for ye Lives of my two sick children Nath. & Sam. [5]

As for Sam: His distemps were yn removed y<sup>e</sup> Ld graciously dealing wth me, as in Isa : 65. 20. dan. 9. 23. Several arg<sup>t</sup>s came into my mind, w<sup>ch</sup> caused me to Hope yt God wld spare his life ; (& I pleaded ym bef ye Ld) one was, yt I had called his Name Samuel ovt of obedience to ye will of God, who requireth me to endeavor to keep vp ye Name & memory of my deceased brother. I thought ye Lord wld in him shew respect in ye Name of his blessed vnkle. Also, in yt I had given him to God ye first day yt Hee came into ye world. Also I had prayed (wth Tears e some Faith) bef ys day, for him, yt God would give of yt spirit to ys child w<sup>ch</sup> did sometimes rest vpo<sup>n</sup> his blessed vnkle. His mother, e his Brother Cotton were wth me in my study after a day of secret Hu<sup>m</sup>iliat<sup>n</sup> bef ye Lord, w<sup>ch</sup> I thus prayed for ye child, all of vs weeping for him. Now I thought it might be some discourag<sup>t</sup> to Cotton in case Hee sld see yt his poor sinfull Fathers prayrs, were not heard ; y<sup>o</sup>I humbly pleaded yt wth God.

As for Nathaniel, I had Hope yt God wold spare him, ye rather bec. [6] yt child hath bin eminently saved fro<sup>m</sup> destruct<sup>n</sup> e death, several times bef ys, w<sup>ch</sup> maketh me Hope, God hath some service for him to doe for his Name ; e yt Hee shall be an instrum<sup>ent</sup> of gods glory in his generat<sup>r</sup>. Also (w<sup>ch</sup> is great mercy) I pceived yt ye Hrts of some Ctn friends were stirred vp to pray for that child w<sup>ch</sup> is a sign, ye Ld intends to Answer. Agn, Jesus c<sup>t</sup> hath bid yt children sld be brought to him yt Hee might bless ym, I y<sup>o</sup>brought ys child bef y<sup>e</sup> Ld Jesus, & could not but Hope yt He would blesse him, even as ye matter doth require. I gave him vp to y<sup>e</sup> Lord agn, pleading, Lord

Hee is yi child. Hee is not onely my child, but through yi wonderfull grace Hee is yi child, & wilt not thou shew mercy, to him, yt is become yi child? I put him into ye Lords hands, yt Hee wld blesse him both now & forever. So I hoped for mercy, & was inwardly satisfied in my owne spirit. [7]

11) Lds day. Nath. revived. A. M. I was put vpo<sup>n</sup> prching beyond my expectat<sup>n</sup>; & God was wth my spirit very much. P. M. Rode to dorchester where Ld enabled me to Prch agn.

Mr [George] Burroughs pching for me at Bosto<sup>n</sup>.

12) This day Cous. Coney wth me, who wth many Tears told me how much Hee was affected wth ye serm<sup>n</sup> yesterday, saying I seemed to him as if I were come fro<sup>m</sup> Heav. & yt Hee had much adoe to forbear crying out aloud in ye Meeting House as I was prching. I see by ys, yr was a special hand of God in disappointing me of other help & putting vpo<sup>n</sup> prhing beyond my expectat<sup>n</sup>, w<sup>ch</sup> caused me to sit vp ye night bef ye sabbath till nigh 2h. A. M.

This day Nath. ill agn iller agn yn yesterday, to Try my Faith e svbmss<sup>n</sup> to ye will of God.

13) This day Nath. much revived. His fever left him. Above 20 worms come fro<sup>m</sup> him at times in ye sickness. studyed serm<sup>n</sup>. [8]

<sup>1</sup> By the fire which took place on November 27, Mather lost "not an Hundred Books from above a Thousand; Of those also he had an immediate Recruit, by a Generous Offer which the Honourable Mrs. Bridget Hoar made him, to take what he Pleased from the Library of her Deceased Husband" (Parentator, p. 79). See Mather Papers (II. 29) in the Prince Library, for a list of books given to him by Mrs. Hoar.

At a meeting of the MASSACHUSETTS HISTORICAL SOCIETY, held in Boston on Thursday, January 11, 1900, Dr. SAMUEL A. GREEN made the following remarks: —

In connection with the copy of Increase Mather's Diary presented at the last meeting of the Historical Society, I wish to submit certain extracts from another diary kept by Mather, which covers in part the same period of time, and was received from the same source. The entries in this book are much fuller than those in the other. The extracts were made more than a hundred years ago by Dr. Jeremy Belknap from the original diary, which never came into the possession of the Society. Presumably he selected such items as he could use in his historical work, or such as interested him for some other purpose. Various passages taken from the volume at the time it was given, on March 11, 1858, appear in the Proceedings (III. 317-320) of that date. For the most part these extracts, then printed, related to Harvard College, and in the present paper none of them is repeated, though a row of three dots is inserted to mark such gaps. Apparently the diary was kept between the years 1674 and 1687, as entries are found during that period of time; and there is no reason to suppose that more than one volume was used by Dr. Belknap when he made his selections.

It is highly probable that Dr. Belknap's extracts were not always exact copies from the original diary, i. e., "letter-perfect" copies; but were given in a somewhat shortened form, though the substance was kept. In the small volume, later referred to, there is a citation from John Marshall's journal which is now in the possession of the Society. A comparison between the original manuscript and the copy made by Dr. Belknap shows certain changes in the construction of sentences and various omissions of words, but the sense remains the same. There is also reason to think that in a few places he has interjected expressions of his own, but in such instances I have not attempted to separate them from the text, or in any way to decide the matter; though what he has given within brackets, I have added as notes at the bottom of the page. From time to time he has left blank spaces in his copy, presumably where he was unable to decipher Mather's handwriting, which is very illegible. In such instances I have inserted the word blank within brackets.

Among the manuscripts used by the Rev. Thomas Prince, when he compiled his "Chronological History of New-England in the Form of Annals" (Boston, 1736), as appears from his Preface (p. vii), was "An Account of memorable Things in New-England, from 1674 to 1687 inclusively, written by the late Rev. Dr. Increase Mather, in his own Hand." According to Mr. Prince, the manuscript was in quarto form; and it must have been the identical diary now under consideration. In former times it was customary to describe books and even manuscripts by the folds in the paper, and to arrange them as folios, quartos, octavos, etc., though such description would by no means conform to the modern standard of sizes. Dr. Belknap's extracts from the diary are found in a small blank-book of 44 pages, which, since it came into the possession of the Society, together with a fasciculus of selections made by him from other sources, has been bound in half-morocco. These latter selections, for the most part made from printed sources, are not given in this paper.

In the copy now presented, for the sake of convenience, the extracts have been arranged chronologically, which was not done in the diary. The entries cover an interesting period in the History of New England, and give details in regard to the minor incidents of Philip's War, which are not found in the more pretentious works relating to that event.

[There are four entries in the diary before November 20, which appear in the Proceedings for March, 1858, and for that reason they are here omitted.]

Dec<sup>r</sup> 25. Marmaduke Johnson the Printer died in Boston. He had just fitted his press to go to work. He was to have printed the Indian bible.

M<sup>r</sup> John Foster bought the press intend<sup>r</sup> to set up printing in Boston.

In Feb<sup>r</sup> a report is come as if John Sausaman the Indian were murdered. He was one of the Indian Preachers, of excellent parts & as M<sup>r</sup> Eliot thinks a sincere Convert.

News cometh that the good people in N Jersey are like to be deprived of all their Estates. When y<sup>e</sup> former Gov was removed & the Dutch took the place, the good people were glad of it & imprudently appointed a day of thanksgiving. Now Providence has so ordered that the former Gov is returned & enraged. Good M<sup>r</sup> Pierson was one that kept the day of thanks<sup>e</sup> with his Chh. Christians should pray for wisdom as well as innocence & sincerity. One imprudent act may bring a whole people into trouble.

It is reported that the Gov of N York doth challenge the greatest part of Connecticut Colony to be und his Jurisdic<sup>n</sup>. This is like to cause trouble.

At Martins vineyard diverse honest people are in great trouble, their estates sequestered by reason of M<sup>r</sup> M [blank] complaining to y<sup>e</sup> Gov of N Y. . . .

19<sup>d</sup> 1<sup>m</sup> I heard y<sup>t</sup> in Virginia there is a great want of Provision. Men & beasts like to perish, and now they say thus "New England, come & supply us & you shall be custom-free. This is very observable y<sup>t</sup> in the 1st year when the act ag<sup>t</sup> N E was put in execution it should be so with y<sup>m</sup> & that they shd be forced to desire help from N E.

Wheat is scarce among people in Boston. There is a designe at N York to hinder supplies from coming hither that so the Trade of Boston may be diminished & their own increased.

April 14. Cattle die at Rhode Island for want of food.

The famine like to rage in Virginia . . .

4<sup>d</sup> 2<sup>m</sup> 1675 Tis reported that at Nosset<sup>1</sup> an Indian Squaw being with child the child was heard crying 3 days before it was born.<sup>2</sup>

29<sup>d</sup> 2<sup>m</sup> I heard y<sup>t</sup> in Long Island many cattle die, cows, sheep, swine in abundance that there is like to be a scarcity of Provisions also y<sup>t</sup> scarcity begining in some towns beyond New Haven.

In Long Island they complain of their new Gov. [blank] Ah poor N E shall scarcity both of [blank] & sp<sup>l</sup> food come on thee! both have been despised.

3<sup>d</sup> mo This gen<sup>l</sup> Court sev<sup>l</sup> things happened troublesome & uncomfortable. M<sup>r</sup> Graves being chosen a deputy for Charlestown, the house of deputies were not free to accept of him as suspecting that he might be prelatical in his principles. He refused to declare what his judgment was in that matter therefore they would not receive him. Petitions came from Charlestown on his behalf but in vain, thereby many displeased.

July. 12. We hear y<sup>t</sup> the Indians have destroyed sev<sup>l</sup> Plantations in Plym<sup>o</sup> Colony. Middlebury all but one house burnt, & at Dartm<sup>o</sup> all but 8 houses, & most of the houses in Swansey & y<sup>t</sup> Ninicraft & other Sachems join with Philip.

The Gov of N Y with 50 Men double-armed came in a hostile Way ag<sup>t</sup> Conecticut, but disappointed at Sea-brook, others having possession of the fort.

20<sup>d</sup> 6<sup>m</sup> This week Cap<sup>n</sup> [Edward] Hutchinson died by the wounds w<sup>h</sup> he rec<sup>d</sup> of the Indians [blank] It seems to be an observable providence y<sup>t</sup> so many of that family die by the hands of the uncircumcised. His Mother (long ago) & sister. And now himself. His own rashness brought this death on him. The last Sabbath he was in Boston he went out of the meeting house in a discontent, because the [blank] admonished a [blank] that had been divers times drunk. Some say he refused to join, that he would hold communication with the [blank] no more at the Ld's table. M<sup>r</sup> Allen told me he s<sup>d</sup> so to him.

Sep<sup>r</sup> 1. A day of humiliation in our Congregation, because of trouble on acc<sup>o</sup> of Indians. The Magistrates kept Court this day, (when the Ld did so visibly call them & all the Country to fasting & mourning) whereby many kept from attending that service & much of the solemnity of the day lost. I was troubled at this & expected to hear more sad news, w<sup>h</sup> soon happened accordingly. For this week news comes that on Sept<sup>r</sup> 1 the very day when we were thus fasting & others shd haue been so but would not, the Indians burnt 17 houses & killed one man at Deerfield, which I haue the more reason to take notice of in that my nephew Sam' Mather is Pastor there.

This day Amalek prevailed over Israel! for Moses' hands were not held up, as should have been !<sup>1</sup>

The Court of Assistants condemned S[amuel] G[iles] to die on acc<sup>o</sup> of Rape committed between Haverhill & Newbury. They y<sup>t</sup> were suspected for the Murder not found guilty.

Sep 14. The ferry boat coming from Charlestown sunk in the midst of the River. There were in y<sup>e</sup> boat 14 passengers & 3 horses. One of the Horses was drowned & one man of Watertown whose name was [John] Shadock, He had been wonderfully preserved in the fight w<sup>y</sup> y<sup>e</sup>

Indians when Cap<sup>t</sup> Beers was killed. It is said that just before this evil befel him, he had been in y<sup>e</sup> Tavern inveighing ag<sup>t</sup> the Magistrates & that he was in drink when drowned. In the same boat Crisp was a passanger, who was lately tryed on [blank] suspicion in respect of the Murder committed in the winter. not evidence eno' to take away his life. He was bid not to go into the boat because of the danger, but he derided saying He y<sup>t</sup> was born to be hanged, will never be drowned, & he was not drowned, though in such guilt. It is to be feared y<sup>t</sup> at last hanging may be his Portion. . . .

This week somebody in the night time erected a Pillar over the Quakers Graves (who were hanged) under the gallows & wrote "Here lie the bodies of such & such, their souls triumphing in [blank] their blood crying for Vengeance." This is an ill Omen.<sup>1</sup>

Oct. 24. This day M<sup>r</sup> Cutts of Portsmouth died in Boston being sent hither as a deputy. A solemn Providence y<sup>t</sup> one of the General Court should die in the time of the Courts session ! and he died in the Governor's house ! He was one of the richest men in New England.

Nov 9. This day the House of Deputies passed the Bill for Reformation &c but the Magistrates would not pass it pretending they had not time. And the night after the Lord forsook the English forces ; for not far from Mendon Cap<sup>t</sup> Hinchman with his soldiers had a great Opportunity to cut off the Indians who were asleep in a Wigwam but after some firing his men cowardly ran away, when the Indians killed his Lieu<sup>t</sup> & another, & were mightily animated &c, a sore rebuke !

Alas that Reformation should stick at the head ! Lord lay it not to their charge, especially impute it not to the Country !

Nov<sup>r</sup> 15. The magistrates consented to the bill for Reformation as to most of the Particulars contained therein.

Nov 18. Gen<sup>l</sup> Court broke up in discontent [blank] lamentable [blank] to the scandal of religion. . . .

In his printed acc<sup>o</sup> of the War p. 18, he makes this observation.

October 19 The conclusions of the Committee (viz of both houses assisted by ye teaching elders) respecting Reformation were signed & delivered into the Gen<sup>l</sup> Court, who voted acceptance & appointed another Committee to draw up laws in order to the establishm<sup>t</sup> &c Now as I remember Fox the Martyrologist observes w<sup>r</sup> respect to the reformation in K Edw 6. days, y<sup>t</sup> the very day & hour when the act of Reformation was put in Execution at London G gave y<sup>e</sup> Eng<sup>h</sup> a signal victory ag<sup>t</sup> the Scots at Musselborough, so it was proportionably with us. For that day when the Vote was past the Lord gave success to our forces at Hatfield &c

MS. 6<sup>d</sup> 10<sup>m</sup> This day we hear y<sup>t</sup> another of the wounded Captains viz Seily of Connecticut is dead: He died on the Sabbath! It may be it was not pleasing to God that the English should engage the Enemy on the Sabbath day!<sup>1</sup>

I hear that a strange Creature was killed at Stonington in Connecticut on Dec<sup>r</sup> 15 by the description of it, it seems to be a Lion.

11<sup>d</sup> 11<sup>m</sup> This day I hear that G has shot an arrow into the midst of this Town. The small pox is in an ordinary ye sign of the Swan, the ordinary Keepers name is Windsor. His daughter is sick of the disease. It is observable that this disease begins at an alehouse, to testify God's displeasure ag<sup>t</sup> the sin of drunkenness & y<sup>t</sup> of multiplying alehouses!

12<sup>d</sup> The maid that was sick of the small pox is dead.

14<sup>d</sup> A Quaker (Robert Ford) nailed a note on the meeting house doors in Boston, declaring that the ruin of this place was at hand. It may be the Lord will preserve us notwithstanding [blank] the false prophets so speak!

21 & 22<sup>d</sup> 11<sup>m</sup> Strange warm weather like April, whereby the snow exceedingly wasted, & it is to be feared, that the Indians will have great advantage thereby to scatter & do mischief, so that the Lord seems to be against us still & to take part with our adversaries!<sup>2</sup>

Connecticot hath hitherto escaped, but many times when a storm cometh, the tail of it is most heavy & formidable. The places that shall be punished most, shall be punished at last. Lord, be more gracious! . . .

8<sup>d</sup> 12<sup>m</sup> Strange warm weather like May, so as that I could not well bear a fire in my study! . . .

13<sup>d</sup> 1<sup>m</sup> This day the Indians set upon Groton, &c In the pursuit after the Indians Turner the Anabaptist being made a Captain had like to have been drowned. This seems to me an observable Providence, that he who had dipped others & has been the principal cause of the trouble raised by the Indians in that place.

12<sup>d</sup> W Clarke's house of Plym<sup>o</sup> assaulted by the Indians this sabbath day. 11 persons killd. He s<sup>d</sup> to me about a month ago when I told him he should not so condemn all the [blank] Indians as he did wishing them hanged &c that their innocent blood would cry. He replied that he would say as the Jews did, their blood be upon me & my Children, which was a dreadful expression & made me fear what would come upon his Children.

This week one that was taken Captive at Groton made an escape out of the Enemy's hands. His name is Blood, a troublesome Man in that place! I wish that the return of such a Man to us may not be ominous of a return of Blood! . . .

<sup>1</sup> N. B. This was y<sup>e</sup> famous attack on the Narraganset fort, concerng wh in his printed acc<sup>e</sup> he says "Here was not only a Victory but also a signal preservation, for wh let the Father of mercies have eternal glory!"

<sup>2</sup> Strange! that there cannot be a warm day in Winter, but it must be a Weather-breeder!

May 9 [1676]. Our army w<sup>ch</sup> is abroad met with a party of Indians & dispersed about 13 of them. The praying Indians did approve themselves faithful to the English & did very good service at this as well as at other Times, inasmuch as many who had hard thoughts of them begin to blame themselves & to have a good opinion of the praying Indians who have been so generally & so sinfully decryed. . . .

May 15. At Lieut Howland's Garrison in Plym<sup>h</sup> was seen in the air an Indian bow pointing from East to West!<sup>1</sup> . . .

[June] 10 A ship arrived from E wherein there came one Randolph who bro't a letter from the K about complaints made ag' this Govern<sup>t</sup> by reason of Gorges & their patent & Interest in the Eastern parts.

Discoursing with M<sup>r</sup> John Oliver he told me that when he was in the streights & at Venice there were 40 Protestant Ministers bro't out of Germany condemned to be galley slaves all their days! Lord, pour out a Vial upon the house of Austria!

July 30. This Evening being the Sabbath between 8 & 9 a'clock there appeared a stream of fire.

August 7. Some of those Indians (women & Children) who lately submitted themselves to the English as they were gathering huckleberries in Concord were murdered by 4 Englishmen. A sad thing. It may be it will occasion the Indians to seek to revenge their blood which has been shed & new troubles to arise. And if Justice be not done upon the Murderers, God will take Vengeance. . . .

In the latter end of August many sick with fever & fluxes (especially in Boston) which proved mortal. Above 50 died in Aug<sup>t</sup> in this Town. In the last week in Aug<sup>t</sup> I hear of 11 that died in 2 days.

In the first Week in September 19 Persons indicted & tried for their lives in Boston.

Sagamore Sam was brought in.

Sep 13. There were 8 Indians shot to death in Boston of those that were bro't in from the Eastward.<sup>2</sup>

21. There were 3 Indians hanged & an Englishman hanged also, for murdering the Indians not far from Concord. Also another Englishman that was condemned should this day have been hanged but he died in prison The like not known y<sup>t</sup> a Man should die or be sick on the day appointed for his Execution. A sad thing also that English & Indians should be executed together.

We hear that 40 Indians have submitted themselves to the English at the Eastward, because afraid of the Mohawks who have killed several.

22. This day Sagamore Sam was hanged at Boston. And the sick Englishman that should have been executed the last Week (whose name was Goble) was hanged with him. It seems a mad woman got away the rope which should have hanged the English Man, wherefore he was hanged with the very same rope w<sup>ch</sup> had hanged the Indian just before.

The same day 3 other Indians hanged, viz the Sagamore of Quaboag, one-eyed John, & Jethro. They were betrayed into the hands of the English by Indians.

Nov. 4. Mugg the Indian Cap<sup>t</sup> came to Boston to treat about peace with the Eastern Indians.

11. Discoursing with Mugg he told me that this winter many Indians at the Eastward had starved to Death & particularly that there were 3 Sachems starved to Death.

Nov. 25. A vessel from Ireland laden with Provisions arrived here, being sent by the Quakers in Dublin for those that were impoverished by the War here.

27. a dismal day. Near my dwelling a fire broke out about 5 h A M. & consumed Houses & many goods. Among others my house & the house appointed for solemnizing the publick worship of God were consumed. Yes there was a great mixture of mercy with judg<sup>t</sup> for tho' the wind was high yet it rained much w<sup>ch</sup> prevented the houses from taking fire so soon as else would have been. Also divers houses being blown up & the wind suddenly fallen through this end of the Town was in extreme danger the wind being southeast many habitations are yet spared.

9<sup>m</sup> 19<sup>d</sup><sup>1</sup> Having this day preached from Zeph 3. 7 as I was gone into my study & was there walking I was much moved before y<sup>e</sup> Lord, using this soliloquy. O Lord God I have told this people in thy name that thou art about to cut off their dwellings, but they will not believe me, Lord who hath believed our report? Nevertheless O that God would spare them &c

Thus did I weep before the Lord.

The next Sabbath day our Meeting house & all the neighbouring houses were burnt to the ground.<sup>2</sup>

M<sup>r</sup> [Thomas] Cobbets Son returned out of Captivity. The Indians desire no Peace. The sword is not yet put up.<sup>1</sup>

March 11. Soldiers returned from Eastward they bro't w<sup>y</sup> the bones of Cap<sup>t</sup> Lake & as much of his body as remained unconsumed w<sup>h</sup> was honorably interred in Boston March 13, being 7 Months after he was killed. He was found in the place where the Indians killed him. Lord be known by avenging the blood of thy saints!

In May, hear that the Mohawks are by the Encouragement recd from Major Pynchon & M<sup>r</sup> James Richards who were sent to treat with them resolved to fall upon East Indians who have done hurt to the English.

May. In y<sup>e</sup> beginning of this Month our meeting house was raised.<sup>2</sup>

June 29. A doleful Slaughter near Black Point. Tis tho't that 50 persons were slain. There were near 100 soldiers, it is questioned whether there were so many of the Enemy. They fought in a plain, not above 5 (or thereabouts) of ours y<sup>t</sup> came off without being either slain or wounded. Our soldiers, some of y<sup>m</sup> basely ran away w<sup>h</sup> occasioned the slaughter. The Enemy strangely bold & courageous. So y<sup>t</sup> there never was a more solemn rebuke since the War begun.

July 5. Day of public humiliation. The next day y<sup>e</sup> Indians killed 7 persons in new Salisbury [now Amesbury]. Presently upon notice of the fast day a sore blasting observed upon the wheat & barley in divers Towns. . . .

July 15. In the night after the sabbath a Post bro't intelligence that the Indians had taken several Ketches belonging to Salem at Cape Sables.

2 Indians were bro't to Marblehead. the Women there in a boisterous rage set upon & killed them. This done upon y<sup>e</sup> Sabbath day [blank] coming out of the meeting house. In y<sup>e</sup> latter end of this Month one of the Eastern Sagamores that was stolen away & sold by Lowton was returned in a Vessel from Fyal.

The New York men are erecting a fort near Pemaquid they have pretended a Peace with the Indians who are our Enemies & send to us that we may be included therein if we please. A most humbling Providence in more respects than one.

Skipper Howe of New Haven returned thought to be lost. He was driven upon an Island near Cape Sable in Nov<sup>r</sup> last no inhabitant being on the Island. All in his Vessel died in a short time. He lived there alone 15 Weeks together feeding upon Crows, Gulls &c

Sep 22. Sad tidings from Hatfield, y<sup>t</sup> the 19th inst 12 persons were killed & 20 taken Captive. The Indians about Chelmsford withdrawn themselves.

27. An alarm at Cambridge & Watertown (tho upon no ground) as if the Indians at Sudbury. Malignant fevers & small pox in Boston.

Oct. 28. Indians burnt a Mill at Hadley. The public school maintained out of that Mill.

Dec. 5. A day of humiliation in our Congregat<sup>n</sup> on acc<sup>o</sup> of small pox. This day it broke out in 3 or 4 families. God seemeth angry at the prayers of his poor Creatures.

1678

April 10. M<sup>r</sup> [Samuel] Willard ordained in Boston.

16. M<sup>r</sup> [Noah] Newman died at Rehoboth. [See Historical Collections, fourth series, VIII. 233 note.]

24 A Chh gathered in Milton.

June 6. public fast on acc<sup>o</sup> of small pox.

19. Indians supposed Mohawks came upon Natick Indians killed 3 & took captive 25.

July 3. It seemeth the Eastern Indians grow more & more tumultuous.

The last Week in July & beging of August, the small pox very sore in Boston. 7 or 8 died in a Week. 3 buried in a day.

This new Moon 150 Persons fell down by y<sup>e</sup> small pox. above 30 taken in a day.

The beg of Sep<sup>r</sup> extreme hot until y<sup>e</sup> Sun come to the equinoctial, then suddenly altered.

April 7. & 13. 2 prayed for sick of small pox.

23. pub. thanksg in Congrega<sup>n</sup> to praise God for restoring health to Boston.<sup>1</sup>

Aug<sup>r</sup> 8. About midnight a fire broke out near Grosses (appearing first on y<sup>e</sup> outside of y<sup>e</sup> house judged to be kindled on purpose). The greatest part of y<sup>e</sup> riches of y<sup>e</sup> Town thought to be consumed in this Conflagration. £150,000 loss. if the wind had been high the whole Town had been endangered. The fire prevailed as far as the drawbridge. The late Gov<sup>r</sup>s house being made of brick was saved with much ado. If it had been burnt many others must have gone. The town house was on fire but put out. if that had been burnt probably y<sup>e</sup> 2 meetg H<sup>o</sup>s in y<sup>t</sup> part of y<sup>e</sup> Town must have followed.

<sup>1</sup> In July several attempts were made by some ill minded Persons to set fire to houses, but the fires were extinguished.

Nov 15. M<sup>r</sup> [John] Whelewright of Salisbury died.

16. Randolph the Enemy of New Engld arrived at N York.

March. I hear. the small pox has destroyed a great part of the Indians about Delaware bay.

A contest between the Gov's of N Y & N Jersey

18. The Council ordered the Doors of the meeting house w<sup>h</sup> the Anabaptists have built in Boston, to be shut up. They took away their doors [blank] boards were nailed. So perverse were they that they would not meet in a private house but met this Sabbath out of doors [blank] their meeting house.

1680

May. This general Court a Woman (a member of the Church at Newberry) tryed & condemned on y<sup>e</sup> account of Witchcraft.

In the Province of Maine the New Yorkers are causing trouble commanding some of the Inhabitants belonging to y<sup>e</sup> Colony to submit to them, so that soldiers are pressed to go with the Dep<sup>t</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> [blank] in order to a resettlement of affairs.

In this Month Ld Culpepper came to Boston.

Oct. 17. Sir Edmund Andross Gov<sup>r</sup> of New York came to Boston, tis tho't his design was to speak with the Ld Culpepper (Gov<sup>r</sup> of Virginia) but he set sail 2 days before Sir Edmund came so that he returned homewards within a Week. There seems to be a special Providence in this disappointment at this juncture. Tis said the Ld Culpepper after he was abroad took some oaths from Randolph & Russel (who went in a vessel with him) against the Country. The ship reported to be leaky. The Lord can sink those that design evil against his Churches & Interest in N E

In october, the gen<sup>l</sup> Court met at Boston, the Magistrates & deputies seldom agreeing in their votes. There were solemn & difficult Cases before the Gen<sup>l</sup> Court, yet they would not or did not, desire any advice from y<sup>e</sup> Elders as in such Cases had been used. [blank] let the issue of things be observed & whether refusing to send Messengers (or an apology) upon the Kings Command do not involve this Country in woful troubles except strange Motions in E different [blank] what there is cause to fear & to expect.

2 Negroes killed themselves on a Sabbath day. The blast at Connecticut was never so great on their wheat as this year. Hundreds of acres will not yield enough to supply one family. A Comet appeared in November in the morning & in Dec<sup>r</sup> in the Even<sup>t</sup>, wearing a formidable aspect.

Dec<sup>r</sup> 16. Fast throughout y<sup>e</sup> Colony. A Letter from the K expressing much displeasure ag<sup>t</sup> the Colony, requiring to send agents within 3 months to answer Complaints especially Mason's claim as far as Salem

19. Gov<sup>r</sup> Winslow died.

21. John Russel died, the Anabaptist teacher, lately a shoemaker in Woburn. The week before, came out the Anabaptists Narrative in Print published by that Russel wherein they glory that in the Time of small pox none of them have died.

1681

This year begins awfully. The latter end of last year was attended with a fearful blazing star whereby the whole earth hath been alarmed. Now we hear rumors as if some prodigies observed in Connecticut Colony. Tis reported that at Wallingford an Indian appeared in the star (probably a phantasy, interlined) Guns & drums heard at Middletown & Guildford. (In ye margin the report occasioned by a drum which somebody did really beat but was supposed to be an invisible hand.) Rumors & great fears lest N E should be involved in another War with the Indians.

Feb. The coldest winter that has been known these 40 years.

Several attempts to set fire to houses in town but all discovered.<sup>1</sup> . . .

A very dry season until Aug<sup>r</sup> 8 & 9 when God sent a plentiful rain.

Aug. 24. The Overseers of the College met at Cambridge spending the day in Prayer. One special request was to entreat for more rain from heaven. The beginning of the next week God sent a plentiful rain.

1682

This winter Simon & Squando, the bloody Eastern Indians, died; the latter of w<sup>h</sup> hanged himself.

A dry spring until April 10.

Aug<sup>r</sup> a more plentiful harvest than formerly

Sep<sup>r</sup> 2 a shock of an Earthquake in the night felt at Boston & Beverly.

In Sep<sup>r</sup>. The old Chh resolved to have M<sup>r</sup> Bond. M<sup>r</sup> Allen their teacher told them he could not in conscience consent to his being put to vote as to office. Presently upon w<sup>ch</sup> the Ruling Elder Wiswal put it to vote & it was voted by a major part of the Chh.

This happens quickly after their peace made with the new Chh. It may be they were not humbled for that difference as they should haue been & so the Lord will leaue them to another schism among themselves.

The following extract from Capt. Lawrence Hammond's Journal is not found in the original diary, which is owned by the Society. Presumably, when it was taken by Dr. Belknap, it appeared in the part of the volume now missing, of which an account is given in the Proceedings (second series, VII. 144, 145) for January, 1892. See ante, page 47.

Nov 27, 76 A fire brake out in Boston about 5 in y<sup>e</sup> Morng at one Wakefields house by the Red Lion by a candle carelessly set and enlightened w<sup>ch</sup> so prevailed y<sup>t</sup> it burnt down about 45 dwelling houses, the north meeting house & several warehouses. The wind was S E when it began, & blew hard. Soon after it rained y<sup>e</sup> wind veering S bro't so much rain that did much prevent further mischief which (the wind blowing extreme hard) it had probably laid in ashes all that end of the Town & endangered Charlestowne also, for many hundred flakes of fire came over the River & fell among houses barns &c Some were carried quite over to y<sup>e</sup> other side of the Town by Johnsons Brick-kilns. There were burnt down M<sup>r</sup> Increase Mather's house, M<sup>r</sup> Jeremiah Cushings, Thomas Moores, tenements all of them, which brought him in about 70 or 80 £ p<sup>r</sup> Ann Rents, Lieut Way's House, D<sup>r</sup> Stone's houses, M<sup>r</sup> John Winsle's M<sup>r</sup> Anthony Checkleys new house with sundry others that were considerable. About 5 houses were blown up which was a means to prevent the spreading of the fire. About 70 or 80 families dispossessed of their dwellings & lodgings some losing all they had.

It is affirmed by Sam Kittle of our town that he standing at the S corner of the meeting house after it was fallen down (but all the timber-work of a violent flame) he saw a black cat jump in at y<sup>e</sup> S end who ran clear through y<sup>t</sup> vehement fire, the whole length of y<sup>e</sup> meeting house & saw her run out at the further end without any apparent damage; which must needs be preternatural. A boy standing by him saw the same.<sup>1</sup>
